

STACKS

16 YOUNG PEOPLE

took part in the Stacks programme at Newman Catholic College.

Stacks is a social investment fund and financial literacy training provider - developing young people's understanding of money and personal finance.

100% of students understood the fundamental concepts of financial literacy, including

Money

Cash

Credit

Debt

Interest Rate

100% of students created a basic budget with support and guidance.

	BEFORE THE PROGRAMME	AFTER THE PROGRAMME
 Define money	93%	100%
 Explain different types of money	43%	61%
 Define and explain the purpose of credit	61%	73%
 Able to independently create a basic budget	36%	50%
 Have at least one financial goal	36%	72%

Participants of the programme described the sessions as:

Insightful

Engaging

Fun

Interesting

